

SCORE

333. TALK

17 people meet at a specific point on planet earth most convenient to all 17

They stand close together and count 17 seconds out loud in their native tongue

They all leave this location and walk or run spontaneously away without thought or concern for where they may end up

They may follow the others

They may go it alone

They walk or run away for 17 minutes

They stop and then return to the original location

They describe to each other in detail exactly what they did and where they got to

They must talk over each other for 17 minutes

The conversations are recorded for 17 minutes

They all listen back to the recording in silence

The recording is deleted