

SCORE

392. LOB

Take an empty bottle
To the bottle bank
Drop the bottle in
And listen

Or

Turn the empty bottle into a Molotov Cocktail
Take the Molotov Cocktail down to Spital Hill in Sheffield
Where the new Tesco supermarket is being built
And lob the Molotov Cocktail over the fence
And listen to the sound of the bottle smashing
Consider the consequence of your action
While whispering to yourself
Every Little Helps

Further Information:
